Renaissance Los Angeles Airport Hotel
Los Angeles, CA
The Cat Writers’ Association, Inc. (CWA) is an international association of professional communicators who provide to the general public and to specialized audiences news, information, education and works of literary and graphic art that help describe, dramatize, explain and illuminate the myriad aspects of felines, especially domestic cats, and their place in human life and culture.

CWA members promote the best interests of all cats through a variety of media and formats, including newspapers, magazines, radio, television, websites, blogs, public relations and publicity, photojournalism, illustration, fine arts, photography, video, podcasts, speech, technical writing and more. Members strive always to observe and promote the highest standard of ethics in the generation and publication of cat information in all genres and media.

Is Self-Publishing For You? 12 Things You Should Know About Self-Publishing Before Getting Involved— PATRICIA FRY (Renaissance I)
Hundreds of thousands of people write books each year and most of them opt to (or are forced to) use self-publishing companies. What do these companies offer? Are they reliable? What can you expect from them? How do you choose the right one? How can you tell when you’re being scammed? What is the author’s responsibility when they sign with one of these companies? Patricia Fry will teach you how to be more proactive on behalf of your book project and avoid going with the wrong self-publishing company. She takes the mystery out of the self-publishing phenomenon and gives you the information and tools you need in order to make better choices.

Saving Lives and Changing Perceptions: Cat Behavior & Clicker Training for Writers—MARILYN KRIEGER & BENGAL FRIEND (International A & B)

Myths and legends have been woven about cats ever since people started sharing their world with them. One of the most persistent and potentially lethal beliefs is that unwanted cat behaviors cannot be changed. Because of this, cats are surrendered to shelters and often euthanized for fixable behaviors problems. It is up to us as communicators/cat-writers to educate people with facts—to change these archaic and false beliefs. Clicker training along with management, environmental changes and other force-free methods are very effective tools for changing behaviors and training cats. This talk will discuss how it works, focusing on a few unwanted behaviors. Marilyn Krieger and her Bengal Friend will hold a live demonstration of clicker training. A list of cat behavior and clicker training resources will be provided to attendees.
10:40-11:20

Going Multi-Media – Me-WOW!—ARDEN MOORE
(International A & B)

Communicating accurate feline info isn’t restricted to the printed pages in magazines. Arden Moore will share ways to make a living by landing deals on websites, radio, TV and be hired as a media consultant and professional speaker. She will also demonstrate the value of teaming up with a spokescat – Zeki, a former abused stray who happily travels as Arden’s pet partner. In this social media world, it’s all about re-invention and Arden will show how to creatively think outside the (litter) box.

11:30-12:20

The Making of Cat Daddy; When The Prescriptive and The Memoir Collide—JACKSON GALAXY (Renaissance I)

Jackson Galaxy, star of Animal Planet’s My Cat From Hell, shares the creative process behind his book, Cat Daddy; What The World’s Most Incorrigible Cat Taught Me About Life, Love & Coming Clean. Reflecting on their 14-year journey together, Jackson makes a promise to Benny (who he semi-affectionately refers to as “the original cat from hell”), to tell the story of the immense behavioral, physical and, yes, spiritual challenges that pushed Jackson to more fully embrace cat behavior as a career path. In the process, however, Benny threw Jackson one last curveball; in order to tell the cat’s story, Jackson had to tell his as well. Suddenly a book about applying Benny’s lessons to all cats became an in-depth look at how two broken beings found, and eventually healed one another.

In 1998, Mr. Levine opened the Paul S. Levine Literary Agency, specializing in the representation of book authors and the sale of motion picture and television rights in and to books. Since starting his literary agency, Mr. Levine has sold over 100 adult, young adult, and children’s fiction and non-fiction books to at least 50 different publishers and has had many books developed as movies-for-television and feature films.
SUSAN LOGAN has been the editor of Cat Fancy, the world’s most widely read cat care and lifestyle magazine, for the past eight years. A veteran in print journalism for more than 20 years, she has spent the past 11 devoted to pet and veterinary topics at BowTie Magazines based in Irvine, Calif.

Under her direction, Cat Fancy received six Muse Medallions from the Cat Writers’ Association in the national magazine category and Logan was awarded the Muse Medallion twice for her monthly editorial column.

Logan received a Master’s of Professional Writing from the University of Southern California. Her first cat book, Cat Calls: Wonderful Stories and Practical Advice from a Veteran Cat Sitter, was published in September 2011.

JANE BRUNT, DVM is a feline veterinarian and executive director of CATalyst Council, a communications platform providing evidence-based information to promote the value and care of cats in the US.

ELLEN PRICE has worked for Pet Sitters International for 13 years as editor of the Pet Sitters WORLD and as academic manager. PSI is the international membership association for more than 7,000 pet-sitting businesses. She previously worked in sports marketing for the San Antonio Express News and in the livestock publication industry.
ANNIE SHIRREFFS has been the managing editor of Cat Fancy for five years. A lifelong cat lover, she has always had cats in her life and is currently the proud mom of mixed breeds Agatha, Alastair and Mathilda. She and her husband also care for a small group of stray cats who live in their neighborhood.

ERNIE SLONE is editor of Dog Fancy, and DogChannel.com and group editor of Cat Fancy, Cats USA, Kittens USA, and Natural Cat magazines, and CatChannel.com and Dog World, Dogs in Review, Dogs USA, Puppies USA, and Natural Dog.

Contributing Artists & Photographers

CAROLE STEVENS BIBISI is an accomplished artist, author, illustrator, poet, musician, and teacher. She creates art and music in rainbow colors. She is mainly focusing on her art, writing, and illustrating children’s books. Tails of American Bronte is her first book about her magical black cat Miss Bronte and they are advocates for black cat adoptions. Miss Bronte stars in her second book My Alphabet along with her troop of mice & ladybug friends. Carole is inspired by her love of animals and nature and her love of vibrant rainbow colors shows in everything she creates.

JANE DENNY is a sought-after graphic designer, illustrator and the art director at The Mad Hand Arts, Graphics & Design, in NYC. Taking much inspiration from her feline friends, she draws The Pride, the award-winning reality cat cartoon starring Crazy Johnny. She donates many hours designing for humane awareness campaigns, and a large portion of the proceeds from her popular designs on Zazzle.com (zazzle.com/thewhitecatco and zazzle.com/thepridecartoon) go to help feral cats in Queens.

DIANNA DIATZ specializes in creating whimsical illustrations of anthropurrorphic cats, as well as humorous writing. She uses ink and watercolors to create her colorful cats.

Dianna’s supurrvisors (sic) are her cats Oliver and Grayson. Of course, no picture is complete without cat hair to remove!

LYN T. GARSON, CVT, is a writer, photographer and Certified Veterinary Technician. Her photographs have been published in national veterinary journals, newsletters, brochures and presentations. She writes for Our Companions News including her column, Technically Speaking. Lyn is also the editor of the Lesbian and Gay Veterinary Medical Association’s international newsletter.

BERNADETTE KAZMARSKI works under the supervision of her cats in her home office and studio, painting animals and nature, writing fiction and poetry and providing commercial print, web and logo design and illustrations as well as photographing events, and writing articles and publicity. She is the publisher of The Creative Cat (www.thecreativecat.net) featuring daily photos and sketches of her cats and daily articles on diverse entertaining and educational topics concerning cats, pets, nature and artwork.
MARCI KLADNIK sits on the Board of Catalyst for Cats, Inc. in Santa Barbara, CA, a feral TNR group. She writes an award-winning bi-weekly cat column for two local papers and at www.catalystforcats.org. While she doesn't profess to being an artist, she does have a BA in the subject and loves to do an occasional sketch. She prefers to write about felines, including a children's book series she's working on about her Scottie and the feral kittens the dog helps foster.

KAREN KUYKENDALL was a charter member of Cat Writers’ Association. In the Winter 1994 issue of Meow, the CWA newsletter, President Amy Shojai asked members to submit designs for the organization's new contest award medallion. The next issue published four designs (three of them submitted by Karen Kuykendall), which were put up for a membership vote. Karen's winning image still adorns our coveted Muse Medallions. CWA awarded the first Muse to Karen Kuykendall at the banquet November 1994. She also received two years free dues.

Meow recorded the historic event as follows: “I’ve been drawing cats since 1965,” says the Casa Grande, Arizona-based artist. Her cat photos and paintings have been widely published and she is also active with the Valley Humane Society.”

At the time Karen was the proud owner of 15 cats. Her name still appeared in the 1998 membership directory, although she died that year after a long battle with cancer. The KUYKENDALL IMAGE AWARD was established and first presented at the 1998 Awards Banquet to honor Karen and her work.

Karen Kuykendall was well-known for her popular, Tarot of the Cat People.

STEPHANIE PIRO is a cartoonist, illustrator and designer. She is one of King Features’ team of women cartoonists, “Six Chix”. (She is the Saturday Chick.) She also does the cartoon panel “Fair Game”. Her work appears all over the place from books to greeting cards plus she designs gift items for her company Strip T’s and her Cafepress Shop. In her spare time (HA!) she works in two libraries and gardens. Visit her website: www.stephaniepiro.com and her blog: http://stephanie-piro.blogspot.com/ Contact her at: stephaniepiro@gmail.com

DIANE M. SMITH, CVT, is a Certified Veterinary Technician with a strong interest in feline health. A member since 1993 and former secretary of the Cat Writers’ Association, she has earned five CWA Muse
Medallions and several special awards for writing on feline nutrition and health, including the President’s Best of the Best Award in 1997. In 2011, she won the Kuykendall Image Award. Diane is also an artist with experience in oils, acrylics and pastels, most recently concentrating on commissioned pastel portraits of animals. She especially enjoys painting her favorite subjects, cats.

CORI SOLOMON’S interest in animals began in the 1980s with the purchase of two Salukis. Having been an art major but putting her creative side on hold, Cori’s Salukis encouraged her reconnection with art and introduced her to showing and lure coursing. With the death of Cori’s sister in 2001, she discovered, her breakthrough in artistic expression and experimentation was through animals. This event also brought cats into Cori’s life, as she chose to care for her sister’s two. Prospering as an award-winning animal artist, friends suggested that her experiences drawing, breeding, training and her overall love for animals was a natural for writing about them. Following those suggestions, Cori began sharing her knowledge through the written word. Cori donates a percentage from art sales to various animal charities and her writing has informed the public on the vital role dogs and cats play in our lives.

ROSIE SORENSON is a recovering psychotherapist and health care administrator, now a writer. Her work has appeared in the Los Angeles Times, the Chicago Tribune, the Baltimore Sun, the San Francisco Chronicle, the San Jose Mercury News, the Pittsburgh Tribune-Review, Cats Center Stage, the Contra Costa Times, the Progressive Populist, and others. In addition, she won honorable mention in the Erma Bombeck Writing Competition for 2007. She is also a monthly humor columnist for the Foolish Times (www.foolishtimes.net). Her essays have been broadcast on KQED-FM, the popular San Francisco NPR affiliate, in its “Perspectives” series. In 2006 she won its Listener Favorite Award.

BETSY STOWE is a freelance writer/photographer and a founding member of CWA. She was the editor of the CWA newsletter MEOW for 13 years and is author of the award-winning book of poems and photos, CALICO TALES AND OTHERS.
